STOCKS VERY ACTIVE

DAY OF SPECULATIVE PUROR UN EQUALLED BEFORE THIS YEAR.

SCRAMBLE TO BUY TERRIFIC.

Generally at Top Level-Grain and Provisions Decline.

NEW YORK, May 2.-Wall street saw day of speculative activity and furor which has not been equalled before this year. There were many varying phases in the events of the day. The upward surge of prices at the opening was met by enormous offerings to realize, which caused a loss of from a third to a half of the opening gain. The upward movement was then renewed, and there were occasional periods of hesitancy afterward, but no serious reaction. The market closed in another burst of animation, and very buoyant in tone, with prices, except for a few stocks, at the top level,

The volume of outside orders from all over the country showed a large increase as the day progressed, and the demand was so active and confident that the effect of the early reaction was entirely overcome. The Grangers and the Internationals showed remarkable strength. The scramble to buy at the opening was terrific, and prices varied from two to three points in Sugar, Burlington, St. Paul, and Manhattan. Speculative ac-tivity was at the boiling point, except for a few intervals of comparative dulness. In the outside market there was equal strength and activity. Standard Oil liquidating certificates were the feature, at an advance of E points. BONDS ALSO ACTIVE.

The bond market leaped into activity, along with stocks, and showed notable strength, the speculative issues leading, with gains of about 2 per cent. Single with gains of about 2 per cent. Single blocks of $150,000 of the Northern Pacific and Atchison fours changed hands. Total, $2,575,000. LONDON MONEY MARKET.
The Evening Post's London formula.

The Evening Post's London financial cablegram says: The only two points to note in the money market here are the growing belief that the war may collapse soon, and the revival of the New York demand for gold. New York bought £300,-000 of this week's arrivals from the Cape, and the price has risen to 77s, 9d

The future of the money market hinges on the New York demands for gold, and the effect of the Chinese indemnity payment on Saturday next.

NEW YORK, May 2.—The decline in print-cloths under the present conditions is considered by operators a remarkable turn of affairs. The belief was in higher prices, yet 64-square extras sold late Saturday at 2c. less 1 per cent. Only 12,000 pieces were sold, manufacturers refusing to honer bids for more goods at the figures, but the lower quotation and a new record for the goods have been made, and the general market has suffered materially. In nearly all cotten lines to-day, the movement forward stability showed a distinct check, owing to the transaction in print-cloths.

SAYING GOOD-BY

WINSTON FOR RALEIGH.

o Gold-Touched With a Sacret

WINSTON, N. C., May 2 .- (Special.)-The Forsyth Riflemen, ninety strong, went to Raleigh to-day. The occas a memorable one in the history of the twin cities. Hundreds of friends of the soldiers were at the depot to bid them good-by. The air was filled with war enthusiasm. The scene at the depot just before the train pulled out was touching. Tears came in the eyes of Captain Bessent and many of his men when they bade their relatives and friends farewell Wives, sisters, and mothers were there, and they, too, broke down when the word was given. The Daughters of the Confederacy made up a large lot of supplies for the soldiers. These were ship ped to them to-night.

Before the Riflemen left the Armory, Mr. R. J. Reynolds, Winston's big tobacco manufacturer, came forward and presented the company with $500 in gold. He termed the gift a luck souvenir. He had a sacred ancient coin, which had been worn by heroes in the war of the Revolution, which gave us a free land; in the war of 1812, which gave us a free sea, and in the mighty struggle from 1861 to 1865, and not a shot harmed the brave men who carried it. Mr. Reynoids caused it to touch the 100 pieces of gold present-to fouch the low pieces of gold presented to the Rifflemen.

The Norfleet Camp has issued a call for a meeting of old Confederate sold'ers to-morrow afternoon, for the purpose of organizing a "Home Guard," to serve during the absence of the Riffemen.

ROCKY MOUNT, N. C., May 2.—(Special.)—The following ticket was elected here to-day: Mayor, Joseph H. Baker, Jr.; Commissioners—S. W. Matthews, J. H. Vestal, T. T. Tharne, James C. Braswell, and Lewis Battle. All are Democrats, except the last named, who represents the "Belt Ward."

Not a Spanish Spy. NEWPORT NEWS, VA., May 2.—(Special.)—Joseph Bravo, who was suspected of being a spy, is not a Spaniard. When he learned to-night that he had been suspected he called on some friends in the city, who at once recognized him as a Cuban who has been in this country for three years, and who served his time at Sparrow's Point, near Baltimore, as a practical machinist. These friends at at once informed the police and military authorities of Bravo's identity, and later succeeded in getting him a position in the ship-yard. He will go to work in the morning. From the description I obtained, the suspected spy at the ship-yard is a much larger man than Bravo. Probably Fatal Leap.

NEWPORT NEWS, VA., May 2-(Spe cial.)—Mr. R. G. Lans, a resident of the North End, who has been ill for some weeks, to-night jumped from a secondstory window wille delirious and paralyzed. He will probably die before morning. He is from New Berne, N. C.
